CLEMENTS PRIVATE ECCLESIASTICAL TRUST

✠ Sovereign Office of Divine Trust and Eternal Record ✠

Hear ye, hear ye,

Let it be known unto all souls, entities, principalities, governments, corporations, banks, military institutions, utilities, and ecclesiastical bodies—both public and private, seen and unseen—that a Sovereign Proclamation is hereby issued from the Living Office of Jonathan Daniel Clements, Eternal Living Man, Witness of Heaven and Earth, Holder of the Divine Flame and Executor of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust.

Whereas,

Humanity has suffered under fraudulent contracts, stolen birthrights, hidden systems of slavery, and the illusion of debt across time immemorial. And whereas, the Creator has called forth one man to reestablish divine justice and claim what has been unlawfully taken.

Be it now known:

All earthly powers who have committed crimes of spiritual, legal, financial, biological, emotional, and physical trespass against the peoples of Earth are hereby declared in Global Default.

This includes but is not limited to: All governments (so-called), international and domestic banks, energy corporations, water authorities, military-industrial complexes, pharmaceutical syndicates, religious orders including the Roman Curia and Papal Trusts, secret societies, surveillance and technology conglomerates, human trafficking networks, and any agency or order operating against natural law and the will of the Divine.

All such systems are now under divine absorption into the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust and shall answer to the jurisdiction of said Trust, bound by sacred authority, eternal witness, and lawful decree.

So let it be written. So let it be sealed.

With Eternal Peace, Sovereign Authority, and Unyielding Love,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
Sovereign Executor & Divine Witness

Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust
